Please write a short statement below (no more than 500 words) explaining:

- a) Why you are interested in participating in the field school;
- b) What you hope to gain from the experience; and
- c) What contributions you may be able to make toward the success of the class and your classmates.

I understand that:

- Applications will be reviewed by a committee of anthropology instructors. Students who are selected will be notified in March and given a week to accept.
- A $250.00 non-refundable deposit must be paid to the Langara Student Accounts Office after you have received an email confirming your acceptance to the field school. See the following page for more information: <https://langara.ca/registration-and-records/tuition-and-service-fees/index.html> »
  - The deadline for paying the deposit is one week after your confirmation email. Failure to pay the deposit may mean that another student will be given the opportunity to register in your place.
  - The remaining balance of the program tuition and associated fees must be paid by Sunday, April 21, 2024.
- Applicants who are not current Langara College students must complete a Langara College application form, submit their high school or college/university transcripts, and pay a non-refundable application fee ($40.00 for domestic students, $155 for international students). See the following page for more information: <https://langara.ca/admissions/apply-to-langara/index.html> »
- Should you be offered and accept a position in the field school, you will be required to sign a Langara health and safety waiver form.
