

The Langara Philosophy Department Student and Community Engagement Project received Innovation funds to support public events at Langara, including: 1) The Philosophers' Jam Dialogue Series; 2) the Langara Philosophy Discussion Club; and 3) the Langara Student Philosophy Conference. The events provide venues for Langara students and the members of the public to participate in a range of non-classroom-oriented activities and discussions involving topical and scholarly philosophical issues.