Course Levels

- Level 1: Students are introduced to the basic vocabulary and simple sentence structures as used in daily settings. Present and future tenses are introduced when appropriate.
- Level 2: Students strengthen knowledge acquired in Level 1 and learn to speak in a more detailed way about daily life, family, work and hobbies.
- Level 3: Students strengthen communication skills by exchanging opinions and ideas while using appropriate expressions and grammatical structures. Past, conditional, and subjunctive tenses are introduced when appropriate.
- Level 4: The emphasis is on spoken communication with a review of grammar rules according to the students' needs. Students will be introduced to current expressions and idioms. Subjunctive tenses are reviewed when appropriate.

- Level 5: Students develop their ability to converse and exchange ideas while improving their fluency. Students continue to familiarize themselves with idioms, expressions and reported speech.
- Intermediate 1: In these classes a functional/task-based approach will be adopted by a variety of activities such as pair work, group discussion, interview, and presentation. Topics will cover daily activities which are meaningful in real-life situations. Reading or writing tasks will accompany when appropriate and necessary.
- Intermediate 2: Students in these classes continue learning and practicing various complex verb endings, complex sentence structures, and honorific expressions. A variety of topics will be introduced for pair or group conversations according to students' interests, needs, and experiences.

Registered Massage Therapy Student Clinics

The Langara College RMT Program Student Clinic is now open to the public!

You will receive hands on massage treatments from students studying Registered Massage Therapy. The 60 minute RMT Student Clinic sessions include assessment, treatment and self-care strategies targeted to the individual client and their healthcare goals. Student clinics are supervised by instructors who are fully qualified and experienced Registered Massage Therapists. This ensures that student led massage treatments are safe and effective.

Dates and times change based on semester, please call the office for more information and to book appointments 604.872.2471
