* Leaders and Managers Deadlines for Employee Changes: Staffing processes (including Hire, Edit Position, Add Job and Change Job) should be submitted in Workday prior to the first day of the pay period in which the change takes effect. Submitting after this date may impact an employee's pay. For Add Job, Edit Position or Change Job processes, please ensure the Effective Date in Workday aligns with the first day of the pay period. When assigning a Work Schedule to an employee in Workday, please ensure that the Start Date aligns with the first day of a pay period. Resignations and retirements should be submitted in Workday as early as possible and in accordance the respective employment contract.

Note: Time worked and/or absences that occur after the submission and approval deadlines for that pay period can be entered on the dates they took place and submitted in the following pay period by the deadlines given. You can correct your time in Workday for up to the last two pay periods.
