CANDIDATE ELIGIBILITY

Under the College and Institute Act, a student is defined as:

"An instructor, librarian, tutor, counsellor, research associate, program coordinator or other employee of the institution that a collective agreement between the bargaining agents, as defined in section 1 of the Labour Relations Code, for the institution and faculty members specifies to be a faculty member."

For the purposes of voting, all faculty who paid Faculty Association dues in the month immediately preceding the election are eligible. Markers are not included.

NOMINATION

1. Each nominee must complete an official nomination form including two supporting nominations sent via email from faculty members on the voters list.
2. Eligibility to be nominated and to co-sign a nomination will be validated from an authorized voters list as defined on the College Information System.
3. Nominees must be willing and able at the time of election to fulfill the commitment to attend the scheduled meetings and serve the full length of the term of office
4. Each nominee must sign the nomination form indicating that they intend to stand for election, that they are willing and able to serve for the term of office, and that they meet the nomination eligibility criteria.
5. Nominations must be submitted within a specified period of time to be determined and publicized by the Registrar. Nominations received after this deadline will not be considered.
6. Each nominee will provide to the Registrar, if desired, a candidate's statement of no more than 200 words.
7. All candidates' statements will be made available to eligible voters.

CAMPAIGNING

1. Campaigning shall be limited to the period between the close of nominations and the day prior to the commencement of polling.
2. Nominees shall ensure that their campaign information is removed from public display not less than ten (10) hours prior to the commencement of polling.

Candidate's declaration:

I _____, meet eligibility requirements, and I have read and understand and agree to abide by the Procedures for Election and I am willing to serve for election as the faculty representative for the term as advertised.
