

The future of higher learning.

Langara College
Foundation

Our vision.

For over 50 years, Langara College has provided learners with the foundation for further education, career success, and professional and personal development. We are also known as snəw̓ eyəʔ leləm̓, a name given to us by Musqueam meaning house of teachings, which we strive to honour each day.

Recognized as a leading undergraduate institution, and with a reputation for providing exceptional learning opportunities; our outstanding faculty, staff, programs, and services continue to grow and innovate to meet the changing needs of our community.

With more than 1,700 courses and 130 programs, Langara's expansive breadth and depth of offerings allows students of all ages, backgrounds, and life stages to choose their own educational path.

As we look to the future, the next 50 years will undoubtedly see more innovation, advances and change.

Just as our students create their individual trajectories, we will forge ahead on our own path. By remaining committed to forward thinking, and being open to new ideas, approaches, and technologies, Langara will continue to be a premier pathways college.

We will celebrate our diverse, inclusive, and resilient community of students, our engaged employees, and our place on ancestral and unceded traditional Musqueam territory.

Most importantly, students will be well supported for growth, change, and success—bringing our communities prosperity as well.

This is Langara.

Fifty years of advancing education in our community.

Fifty years of helping students move toward the future they dream of.

You are an important part of this story.

You recognize the importance of education, and you lead the way forward by supporting this vision.

Together, we can ensure that the next 50 years bring even more opportunities for learning, growth and success to many thousands of students.

Meet Tejinder.

“The generosity of donors helps shape student lives. As a scholarship recipient, I know how much the support of donors can make students feel that they have accomplished something good, and that they are deserving.

It definitely helped me financially, and I also feel prouder of my accomplishments and what I have achieved. As I go forward into the working world I will remember this support, and keep the feeling close to my heart. Without donors this would not have been possible.”

“It impacted me as a student to be more active and dedicated towards the community, and work for change.”

“I’ve seen first-hand the focus and determination our students bring to their studies.

My connection to Langara goes back to 1986 when I was first a student here. Later, I had the opportunity to return to the program as an instructor.

So, choosing to support the Langara College Foundation was an easy decision. It is a way for me to contribute to the next generation and create possibilities for them.

My family’s decision to support the Langara College Foundation through planned giving will create support for students in a long-term, sustainable way.”

“Supporting young people with dreams is good for the community.

No matter what they end up studying, our support will help their dreams come true. And they will remember the support and give back to the community.

I think our young people are really the future. They hold the environment and the wellbeing of the community in their hands. So, our legacy to the Langara Foundation and 49 Women in Science was top priority.”
