Learning Outcomes:

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

- demonstrate a broad understanding the development of complex civilizations in Latin America as well as of the various aspects and achievements of specific indigenous societies in different parts of the region during some 10,000 years of occupation, prior to the arrival of the Spanish in the early 1500's
- explain the impact of European conquest and colonization on the traditional lifeways of indigenous cultures
- identify the lasting legacies of the Colonial era on modern-day social and economic policy in Latin America, and critically evaluate the root issues associated with the conditions faced by the rural poor in the region today
- critically assess the effects (real and potential) of globalization (from tourism to resource extraction) on the lifeways and culture of Latin American peoples
