Course Description, Prerequisites, Corequisites:

This course has two interrelated themes. The first theme involves an orientation to the students' up-coming internships (in the fourth term). This orientation will include an introduction to the duties, responsibilities and assignments of the students as interns, and the process of investigating, assessing and choosing internship placements. The second theme is the continuation of the student's portfolio development in an area of their chosen recreation specialty. With faculty supervision, the students will develop self-directed learning plans and will acquire the "essential abilities", including certifications, that are needed by all competent practitioners in the field of recreation.

Registration in this course is restricted to students admitted to the Bachelor of Recreation Management and the Recreation Leadership Diploma.

Prerequisite(s): RECR 2288. This course must be taken in the term (Fall Semester) prior to the Internship Course.
