

LANGARA COLLEGE CRIMINAL JUSTICE DEPARTMENT

Application form for J.S. Osborne Scholarship for Social Justice

Please answer all questions, marking N/A if they do not apply to you. You must pay all debts to Langara College to be eligible. You must be a Canadian citizen or landed to be eligible.

Name:

Mailing address:

Telephone:

Email:

Citizenship status:

Langara student #:

S.I.N.:

Attach a copy of your current transcript (need not be official) showing completion of at least 30 credits in any program. Students must be registered in a minimum of 9 credits in the current semester and minimum of 9 credits in one of the two previous terms.

What does the term “Social Justice” mean to you? (Answers to this and these next questions to consist of a typed 300 word essay and attached to this form)

What is your interest in social justice? How have you demonstrated your commitment to social justice in your work, volunteer, and other experiences?

Will you graduate this term? What are your plans next year for further academic education and for work in the field?

How have you demonstrated academic ability to achieve your goals?

How will this award make a financial difference to you in achieving your academic goals?

The above and attached information is true.

I agree that this information may be revealed to the donor.

SIGNED:

Thank you for applying. You will be informed of the result in due course.

Please submit the completed application to Catherine Huth, the Criminal Justice department chair, no later than Friday, January 29 2016. Please contact her (chuth@langara.bc.ca) if you have any questions.