

SFU-Langara Indigenous Transfer Pathway

REGISTRATION FORM | INDIGENOUS EDUCATION AND SERVICES

The SFU-Langara Indigenous Transfer Pathway is a collaboration between SFU and Langara College that offers support for Indigenous students currently attending Langara through specified admission requirements and entrance awards leading to a bachelor degree at SFU. Learn more at langara.ca/sfu-itp.

PROCEDURES

1. Submit completed form to the Indigenous Gathering Space (IGS), Room C140, Langara College. If you are unable to drop off the form during normal business hours, please email Indigenous@langara.ca.
2. Meet with a member of the IGS team for a transition plan meeting. The transition plan meeting is intended to collaboratively review the following:
 - a. Langara program requirements and SFU program of choice entry requirements;
 - b. Scholarship and bursary availability for Indigenous students;
 - c. Identification of goals that support a transition to SFU.
3. Coordinate a meeting with one of the Indigenous Liaison Counsellors by emailing Indigenous@langara.ca for course selection and other advising assistance.
